

A large flock of birds, likely doves, is captured in flight over a field of tall, golden-brown grass. The birds are scattered across the entire frame, with some in sharp focus and others blurred, creating a sense of movement and vastness. The background is a clear, light blue sky.

LOCATION

Entre Ríos, Argentina

Santa Rosa is located near Gualeguay, in Entre Ríos — a fertile farming region holding exceptional numbers of doves throughout the season. Most guests arrive at Ezeiza (EZE) and transfer directly to the estancia — often arriving in time for a half-day hunt.

THE LODGE

Accommodation

8 en-suite bedrooms — 4 singles + 4 doubles — with private bathrooms, individual climate control and daily housekeeping for up to 12 guests.

Common Areas

Spacious living room with fireplace, TV lounge and bar area, gun room for safe firearm storage, shaded galleries and outdoor seating.

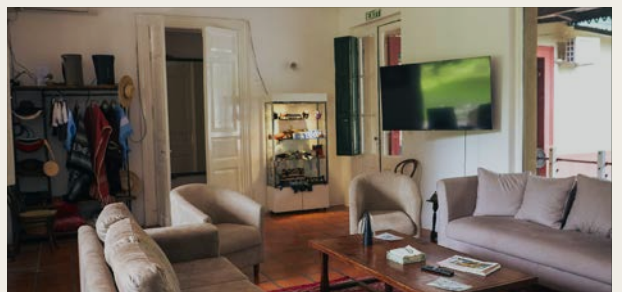

Grounds

Open grounds with wide rural views, fire pit and a relaxed social atmosphere that turns strangers into friends over asado and a good Malbec.

"Like coming home — four straight years and I keep returning."

GETTING THERE

2.5 hours from
Buenos Aires.
No domestic flight.

THE HUNT

Dove Hunting

- World-class volume — Eared Dove in high-action fields

✦ ADD TO YOUR TRIP

BOUTIQUE WINERY

AFTERNOON EXPERIENCE · 10 MINUTES FROM THE LODGE

BordeRío Winery

Most hunters don't know Entre Ríos produces wine. A boutique winery just 10 minutes from Santa Rosa — vineyards, an underground wine cave, and Argentine Malbec between hunts.

The afternoon before dove hunting is the perfect time for a visit. BordeRío is a short ride from the lodge — your team handles the transfer and reservation. Walk the vineyard, descend into the underground wine cave, and sit down for a private Malbec tasting before heading back to the field.

WHAT THE VISIT INCLUDES

- Guided walk through the vineyards and production cellars
- Descent into the underground wine cave — candlelit, barrel-aged wines
- Private Malbec tasting — estate-produced wines, Cabernet blends and Chardonnay
- Olive grove dining option — wood-fired cuisine, organic garden, open-air setting
- ~1.5 hours · transfer and reservations included in the lodge program

"A glass of Malbec in the underground cave — then back out to the field. There's nothing quite like it."

Community & Use of Game

CHARITY PROGRAM

For over 10 years, NP Outdoors has hosted charity hunts in partnership with leading US organizations — raising over $500,000 to date and donating harvested birds to local families, lodge staff and rural communities throughout Entre Ríos.

Each charity trip is a win-win: the partner organization receives a high-value experience to auction or raffle, hunters get a world-class Argentine trip, and local communities benefit from both the donated game and the economic activity the lodge creates.

PARTNER ORGANIZATIONS

- CCA Louisiana — Coastal Conservation Association
- SkyHigh for Kids — over $500K raised combined
- Boy Scouts of America — multiple chapters
- Safari Club International — MN, Iowa, Wisconsin, Georgia & more
- Weatherby Foundation — annual gala fundraiser
